Tips for Contacting Potential Resources

When contacting potential resources, you can guide community personnel in discussing information about what they have offer you or your family.

·Introduce yourself giving your first and last name.

“Hello, my name is _____.”

·Explain why you are calling, what you or your children need and the number and ages of your children.

“I am calling from Crescent City. I am the mother of a 2 and a 4 year old and I would like to take a parenting class. I will need child care while I attend classes.”

·Ask for the resource’s specific functions (what do they do?) and decide if any of them match your needs.

“Does your program offer anything that would fit my needs or do you know a better organization I could call?”

·If you feel that you would benefit from the program, get the following information:

·Location of services

·Name of a contact person (if any)

·Hours of service, fee, eligibility requirements and how to apply or sign-up for the service.

·Ask the resources personnel to send you the necessary brochures or other paperwork that further explain the resource. Give your name and address.

·End your discussion by re-stating your expectations of the resource. Thank the contact person for his or her information.
